Please speak to the Minister or to one of the Stewards.

Lent Course – 5 Weekly sessions

For the next three Mondays at 10.00 am a Lent course will be hosted by Brenda Bennett at Tregantle Walk, Nythe. Please telephone Brenda on 643949 if you would like to attend.

You are also welcome to follow the Lent Course at one of our evening small groups. Most of them will be using the course - please contact the group leaders directly for more information (or contact Tony on 525130). This year the course is based on the “Lord’s Prayer”, with Bible Study and discussions looking at what it means to be in the community of the “Lord’s Prayer” today.

A small group will be meeting at Tracy Ratcliff’s, (Falconscroft) on Thursdays from 1.30—2.30pm for fellowship, chat and prayer. We will start by looking at The Lord’s Prayer, like the Lent & Cell Groups. Interested in joining us? - have a word with Tracy or Cathy (525130)

Prayer Initiative - we continue to pray for the residents of Covingham Drive, Linnetsdene and Hawkswood. Please also remember them in your personal prayers. Barbara W.

Christian Aid Event—The Water Mystery of Kyamwilu, Kenya.

Christian Aid working through partners in Kenya—Monday 8th March 7-9.30pm. At Emmanuel United Reformed Church, 81 High Street, Haydon Wick. Come along to enjoy some Fairtrade drinks & snacks and listen to our guest speaker Ed McGregor and his first hand stories from Kenya. All welcome, admission free—donations welcome.

DEPUTY CHURCH WARDENS

Please consider seriously whether you are able to become a Deputy Church Warden. This would be on a rota basis, and not a commitment for every Sunday. For more details please speak to one of the present deputies or to Marilyn on 824249

CAKES WANTED

Volunteers needed to make cakes for the teachers in the schools with which we are involved, in recognition of all the hard work that they do with children. If you are able to help please contact Margaret (532849) for Covingham, Nythe and Nyland, Elizabeth (497910) for Eldene, or Leila (430350) for Liden and the Chalet School.

Two events on Saturday 20th March for your diaries.

Garage Sale at St. Paul's—10.00-12.00 noon

Coffee Morning at St. Tim's 10.00-12.00 noon in aid of St. Timothy's Church, Hemlington—further details in monthly magazine.

We invite you to share in a PASSOVER MEAL at St. Paul's Church Centre on Maundy Thursday 1st April at 7.00pm. This will follow the tradition of the Jewish Passover but with Christian additions - we shall eat a meal of lamb, green salad + other traditional eats associated with this special meal - we shall learn of its origins - and relate this to Jesus' last supper with his disciples.

There is no charge for these tickets but please take one ONLY IF YOU ARE CERTAIN to come. This will help with catering. Tickets available from Stewards/Wardens. Further information from Derek Collins (523810)

Help will be needed for the Passover Meal - if you could provide a green salad or roast a joint of lamb (provided) or help get the room ready or help with the washing up, please contact Jenny Collins (523810)

The Eldene Thursday Cell group are going to be arranging collection for recycling of the following to be made into bags by a women's group in the Philippines: Toothpaste tubes - Ring pulls (not the whole lids please!) - Crisp packets and similar material packaging. These will be sent to the Philippine Community Fund—more info from <http://www.p-c-f.org> or watch this space! Please start collecting now and further details about collection will follow.

In addition Nathalie would like to add that Unicef will collect old shoes for recycling from all Clarks shoe shops—latest discovery in trying to throw less away!

ADVANCE NOTICE - Tuesday 4th May at 7.00pm.

- Training for all Young people working with children.

CAN YOU HELP— the Holiday Club planning team are wanting to borrow portable dress rails—if you have one (or more) that you could lend us, please let us know. ALSO any spare odd socks (which will not be returned) to make socks puppets.

Would you like to try Line Dancing! There are vacancies in the Beginners Class in the hall at St. Paul's on Tuesday mornings from 9.30 - 10.30am. Cost is £3.50per week. Entrance at side of Church buildings. Further information from Joan 530864

All items for inclusion in next week's notices should be sent to Anna Newman by Thursday 11th. March
